

PRO-700

All to all Intercom system

System Pro700 is an "All to All" loud or low speaking handsfree system with max. capacity of 40 stations. The system does not use a central exchange, all stations are micro-processor controlled, providing an extensive range of standard and optional programmable features.

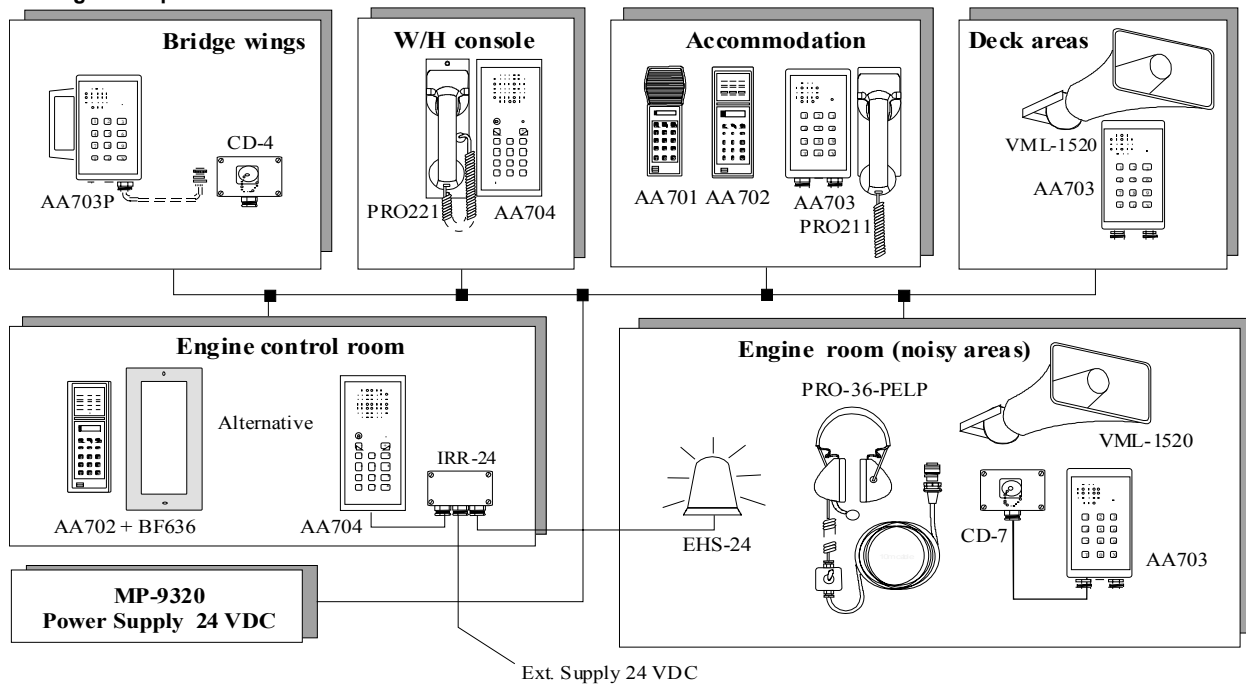

Features

- Max. capacity of 40 stations (recommended system size, max. 20 stations)
- Standard Power input: 24 – 27 VDC, 4 A.
- No system exchange
- Priorities
- Cabin stations with privacy and display
- All Call and two Group Calls with auto answer-back
- One program distribution channel
- Simple installation, loop cabling.
- Handsfree conversation, semi duplex.
- Remote control of external audible or visible signal devices
- Interface possibilities to Public Address and PABX (only one preprogrammed number)
- Amplifier (10W) to be built into stations AA703 and AA704.
- Local 24VDC supply needed.
- Additional 8 ohm loud-speaker

PRO-700 All-to-all Intercom System

Marine

Config. example

The cabin station's LCD display provide useful informations.

The system have both Main and Sub stations and are individually programable.

The other system stations have a built-in relay which can be used to operate an external relay for calling signals or other facilities activated by the calling subscriber.

The system has one speech channel and can have one program distribution channel .

The T-button is provided for manual control of the speech and the X-button is used to cancell the conversa-tion. Either party may cancel the call.

All stations are powered from a centralized power supply .

For more detailed product descriptions:

www.zenitel.biz \ Communication & Security Systems \ Zenitel Marine

